Defendant

Police Officer Patrick Pogan, shield 28957 of the 014 Precinct-Midtown South Precinct, states as follows:

On July 25, 2008, at about 21:35 hours off the corner of 7th Avenue and 46th Street in the County and State of New York, the Defendant committed the offenses of:

1. PL110/120.00(1) Attempted Assault in the Third Degree
(1 count)
2. PL205.30 Resisting Arrest
(1 count)
3. PL240.20(5) Disorderly Conduct
(1 count)

the defendant, with intent to cause physical injury to another person, attempted to cause such injury to another person; the defendant intentionally attempted to prevent a police officer and peace officer from effecting an authorized arrest of himself and another person; and the defendant, with intent to cause public inconvenience, annoyance and alarm and recklessly creating a risk thereof, obstructed vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

The offenses were committed under the following circumstances:

Deponent states that deponent observed the defendant obstructing vehicular traffic by riding defendant's bicycle in the center lane of traffic while traveling southbound on 7th Avenue at the above-named location and while weaving defendant's bicycle in and out of the center lane of traffic, thereby forcing multiple vehicles to stop abruptly or change their direction in order to avoid hitting the defendant. Deponent further states that the defendant's above-described conduct caused public disturbance and inconvenience in that it caused disruption of the normal flow of vehicular traffic.

Deponent further states that upon instructing the defendant to cease the above-described conduct, the defendant steered the defendant's bicycle in the direction of deponent and drove defendant's bicycle directly into deponent's body, causing deponent to fall to the ground and causing deponent to suffer lacerations on deponent's forearms.

Deponent further states that when deponent was placing the defendant under arrest for the above-described offense, the defendant (i) twisted away from the deponent, thereby making handcuffing difficult, (ii) refused to place his hands behind his back, (iii) flailed his arms, (iv) kicked his legs, and (v) stated in substance: YOU ARE PAWNS IN THE GAME; I'M GONNA HAVE YOUR JOB.

False statements made herein are punishable as a class A misdemeanor pursuant to section 210.45 of the penal law.
